

The ACTION Campaign Calls on Congress to Strengthen and Expand the Housing Credit

May 9, 2025

The Honorable John Thune
Majority Leader
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

The Honorable Chuck Schumer
Minority Leader
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

The Honorable Mike Johnson
Speaker
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

The Honorable Hakeem Jeffries
Minority Leader
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Leader Thune, Speaker Johnson, Leader Schumer, and Leader Jeffries:

The undersigned businesses and organizations, representing over 2,600 national, state and local affordable housing stakeholders, as part of the A Call To Invest in Our Neighborhoods (ACTION) Campaign, urge Congress to support and advance the bipartisan, bicameral Affordable Housing Credit Improvement Act of 2025 (AHCIA, S. 1515 and H.R. 2725) to expand, strengthen, and protect the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (Housing Credit).

At a time of unprecedented housing need, the AHCIA offers proven solutions. Reintroduced by Senators Todd Young (R-IN), Maria Cantwell (D-WA), Marsha Blackburn (R-TN), and Ron Wyden (D-OR), and by Representatives Darin LaHood (R-IL-16), Suzan DelBene (D-WA-01), Claudia Tenney (R-NY-24), Don Beyer (D-VA-08), Randy Feenstra (R-IA-04), and Jimmy Panetta (D-CA-19), this comprehensive legislation builds on decades of bipartisan support and legislative refinement.

Key Provisions of the AHCIA:

- Increase Housing Credit allocation by 50%, phased in over two years.
- Lower the 50% bond financing threshold to 25% for 4 Percent Credits—unlocking production currently constrained by private activity bond caps.
- Expand basis boosts for:
  - Rural and Tribal developments
  - Extremely low-income households ( $\leq 30\%$  of area median income)
  - State-designated priorities
- Enable production of nearly 1.6 million additional affordable homes over the next 10 years.
- Support 2.4 million jobs, generate over $271 billion in wages and business income, and raise approximately $94 billion in tax revenue.

In total, the bill includes more than two dozen targeted provisions to:

- Preserve existing affordable housing
- Reach the lowest-income households
- Improve access in hard-to-serve areas
- Enhance state-level program administration

Since its inception in the Tax Reform Act of 1986, the Housing Credit has financed around 4 million homes, serving over 9.2 million low-income families, seniors, veterans, and individuals with disabilities. It remains a model public-private partnership—leveraging private capital, market discipline, and state stewardship.

The AHCIA earned 309 bipartisan cosponsors in the 118th Congress and was the most cosponsored tax bill in the House. This level of support reflects the Housing Credit's long-standing, cross-party appeal and the critical role it plays in communities across the nation.

As Congress and the Administration work to shape a comprehensive tax reconciliation package in 2025, there is a unique window to leverage the private sector in meeting the vast shortage of affordable housing across the nation, including in rural, urban, and suburban communities. The Housing Credit must be part of that solution.

The ACTION Campaign applauds our bill leaders and the hundreds of cosponsors already signed onto this critical legislation for their leadership and support of the Housing Credit. We urge all Members of Congress to join as cosponsors of this crucial bipartisan legislation.

The ACTION Campaign urges all Members of Congress to cosponsor this critical, bipartisan legislation and for Congress to include it in any tax legislation it considers this year. To sign on as a cosponsor, please contact Sam Jockisch, Office of Congressman LaHood, at Samuel.Jockisch@mail.house.gov; Victoria Honard, Office of Congresswoman DelBene, at Victoria.Honard@mail.house.gov; Greg Warren, Office of Senator Young, at Greg\_Warren@young.senate.gov; or John Draxler, Office of Senator Cantwell, at John\_Draxler@cantwell.senate.gov.

For questions about this letter or the ACTION Campaign, please email our co-chairs, Ayrianne Parks (aparks@enterprisecommunity.org) and Jennifer Schwartz (jschwartz@ncsha.org). Thank you for your consideration and your support for strengthening the Housing Credit—our most effective tool to tackle the affordable housing crisis.

Sincerely,

Ayrianne Parks,
ACTION Co-Chair and
Senior Director, Public Policy at Enterprise Community Partners

Jennifer Schwartz,
ACTION Co-Chair and
Director of Tax & Housing Advocacy at National Council of State Housing Agencies
