

Become a HUD-Approved Housing Counseling Agency

Are you considering becoming a HUD-approved Housing Counseling Agency?

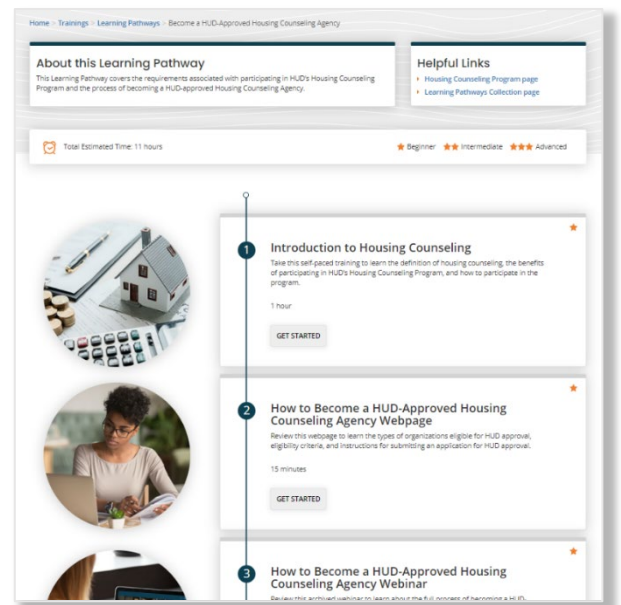

Whether your organization is actively considering participating in HUD's Housing Counseling Program or you are interested in learning about the requirements and process, this Learning Pathway is for you!

Learn about participating in HUD's Housing Counseling Program and whether becoming a HUD-approved Housing Counseling Agency is the right choice for your organization.

Start Exploring Today!

- Build your knowledge one step at a time, from introductory through advanced topics
- Fit learning in as your schedule allows - many of the resources in this Learning Pathway should take 30 minutes or less to review
- When you've reviewed the 11 resources in this Learning Pathway, you'll know if your organization meets the requirements to become a HUD-approved Housing Counseling Agency and the process to become one

Explore this Learning Pathway

About Learning Pathways on the HUD Exchange

This Learning Pathway was created by ICF in partnership with HUD's Office of Housing Counseling through the Community Compass grant program.

HUD Exchange Learning Pathways guide users through selected content in a specific arrangement designed to progressively build knowledge and skills in as little time as possible.

